Star Spangled Girl Sept 6-28

From the mind of one of America's comedic genius', Neil Simon comes this story set in San Francisco of the early 1970s of what happens when you take a writer for a liberal newspaper extremist... his editor (who will do anything to keep his newspaper going)... and an All American girl from the Midwest with beliefs so conservative that she'd consider Bob Dole a radical... and add in a little unrequited love and shake!

[1:00 p.m. matinee on Thurs., Sat., and Sun., and 7:00 p.m. on Fri. and Sat./Tickets $10.25-$16.25]

The Frozen Man Oct 4-Nov 2

In the wake of a massive snow storm, a small rescue party arrives at the ill-fated Exham Mine, only to find the crew mysteriously missing and a single frozen body. Following the frozen man's cryptic journal, the party must fight the elements, insanity, zombies, and each other in an effort to stop the evil that has been freed from the mine.
