We have our roots in Christianity and perform both secular and faith-based shows with scriptural messages. We do lots of fundraising and entertain audiences from offices to churches and general admission shows for all ages. Oxymorons Comedy is comprised of veteran stand-up comedians who've performed alongside Sinbad, Emo Philips, Christopher Titus, Mitch Hedberg, Paula Poundstone, Jeff Allen and more, as well as Improv comedians trained by Second City & UCB, theatrical performers and Worship Leaders at local churches.

We feel that if we can make even one person laugh... we've done better than Pauly Shore.
